

She Carries On

Though she may be gone, her words carry on.
"Take time to grieve", "It's okay to cry",
"It's better to give than receive", "It'll be alright, Dear".

Though she may be gone, her smile carries on.
The sideways look when caught on camera,
The laughter when you did something goofy,
The perpetual smile of her naturally resting face.

Though she may be gone, her actions carry on.
Proud independence, the right to make her own choices,
Obstinately stubborn, but fierce with her love.

Though she may be gone, her character carries on.
Peacemaker, problem-solver, mender,
Compassionate ear, giving-hand, willing shoulder.

Though she may be gone, her love carries on.
She loved her family with all her heart and strength,
She loved her friends as family and even those who walked away.

Her love was fair, was tough and was thorough.

Though she may be gone, her legacy carries on.
Through her spouse, her children, her grandchildren and more,
Her legacy is to live your life to the fullest and to your heart's content.

This is her gift and the way she would want you to carry on.

I'll Fly Away

by Albert Brumley (1929)

Some glad morning when this life is o'er
I'll fly away
To a home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away

I'll fly away, oh Glory
I'll fly away, when I die
Hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have flown
I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison bars has flown
I'll fly away

I'll fly away, oh Glory
I'll fly away, when I die
Hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joy shall never end
I'll fly away

I'll fly away, oh Glory yes
I'll fly away, when I die
Hallelujah by and by I'll fly away

Ann's favorite version was sung by the Gaither Band

Margaret Ann Hurley Juckett, born April 17, 1948, a native of Alpena, Arkansas, passed away on July 14, 2021 at the age of 73. Ann left this world doing exactly what she loved doing most, being on her property, taking care of horses and cattle, and taking care of her land.

Ann had a love of people and of animals. She spent her lifetime serving others through her work in manufacturing, hospice care, volunteer activities, farming, and as the coordinator for the Alpena Cemetery. Always willing to lend a hand or help someone through a rough patch, the number of people Ann's life touched is innumerate. Ann is known for her compassion, loving heart, and tenderness, as well as her feistiness, grit and perseverance. Ann was one of the kindest people anyone knew.

She is survived by her husband, Larry Ray Juckett, her daughter Marisa Michele Voelkel and husband Carl of Janesville, Wisconsin, her daughter Meika Ann Bartlett of Springdale, AR, and her six grandchildren; her sister Mary Keith "Keesie" Mitchell and husband Calvin; her sister Cathy Lynn Magee; and several nieces and nephews; Wes Scott and his son. Ann is preceded in death by her parents, Elwin Keith Hurley and Rosemary Tate of Alpena; her brother John Elwin Hurley and her brother Terry Keith Hurley.

Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, July 20th at 11:00 am at the Smith's Family Funeral Home in Green Forest, AR. The service will be officiated by Kerry Liggett of Batavia Baptist Church.
