

FROM "HERMAN" AKA YASMYN

"To My Sister"

by Allison Chambers Coxsey

I'm blessed to call you sister,
I also call you friend;
You've loved me unconditionally,
And stood through thick and thin.

We laughed and played together;
Then growing up you stood by me,
Through good and stormy weather.

You've shared my joys and sorrows,
My laughter and my tears.
You've been my inspiration,
As we grew up through the years.

There's something God has given us,
That's more than family;
He's placed a love for you, my Sister,
Deep down in the heart of me.

FROM "BAMAH" AKA GRANDMA MICHALE

Kimmie, "You Are So Beautiful" by Joe Cocker will always be our special song. The words sum up EXACTLY how I've felt about you the first time I held you in my arms. I'll love you... Forever.

FROM "TEETEE" AKA AUNT CHRISTINA

"Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair"

Inspired by Nina Simone's Rendition, Tailored for Kimberly

Black, black, black is the color of my Kimmie's hair. Her face is something wondrous fair. The purest eyes and the softest hands. I love the ground on where Kim stands. I love my Kim and where she goes. I love the grass on where Kim goes. If she on Earth no more I'd see... My life will quickly fade away... Black is the color of my Kimmie's... (We'll finish it when we meet again, TeeTees's Woo)

FROM MOMMA

My firstborn and my sweet baby... You'll always be my sweet baby. My life is better because you were in it. As I witnessed you go through your struggles with such strength and composure, you inspired me to become a better mother. Through your life, I surrendered to Jesus's call, I was baptized in His name & I received the Holy Ghost.

You were such a beautiful soul... Full of determination, passion, and personality. I'll never forget your beautiful face, your sweet kisses, and your gorgeous smile. I'll never forget how much you loved me back. I'll love and cherish the memories of you for the rest of my days. Until we meet again, sleep well, my darling child... I love & miss you so much, NuNu.

Reflections of Kimberly's Gifts

Kimberly Christina Knight was born December 10, 1990, in Greenville, Mississippi, to Eugene Knight, Jr., and Tina Hinton. Kimberly was preceded in death by her father, Eugene Knight, Jr.; her maternal grandfather, Jimmie Hinton; her paternal grandparents, Eugene Knight, Sr. & Doris Knight; her aunt, Diana Knight; and her uncle, Marvin Knight.

In 1993, after relocating to East St. Louis, Illinois with her mother & younger sister Yasmyn, the family eventually settled in Edwardsville, Illinois, in 1995. Kimberly attended the Edwardsville Public School District 7 from first grade, until she graduated high school in 2011. Since the age of five years old, Kimberly was a member of the True Gospel Miracle Church of God under the leadership and tutelage of the late, great, Dr. B.L. Gregory.

Even though Kimberly received a diagnosis of Juvenile Huntington's Disease (JHD) at the tender age of eleven years old, the diagnosis and the adverse effects of JHD never diminished her spunkiness, magnetic personality, and love for life. Those who knew her were very familiar with her "side eye" glances, her sassiness, her strength, her determination, and her love for family.

Kimberly transitioned, with her family by her side, on May 15, 2022. Her loving spirit and countless fond memories are cherished by: her mother, Tina Hinton; sister, Yasmyn Knight; maternal grandmother, Michale Hinton; uncle, Timothy Knight; aunts, Christina (Leonard) Hampton, Kimberly Harvey, Cassandra Jordan, Lisa Knight, and Ophelia Knight; maternal great-grandfather, Anderson Green, Sr.; and a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, and friends.
