

*Your heart was filled with love. Your spirit shined so bright. Your soul was always pure.
Although you were plucked from this life too soon, you will live on forever.
Through Shantesha, your take charge attitude will never dim.
Through Canesha, your feisty personality will always burn.
Through me, your gift for guiding and helping others will only grow stronger.
Through Malaika, your beautiful spirit will continue to touch hearts.
Your four girls will keep growing moma. We will never give up hope, we will never lose faith.
We will stand strong until we are called home, and we meet again.*

Life Reflections

NICOLE BRANYON (Nikki Tikki), age 42, passed away peacefully the early morning of April 3, 2020. She was born July 2, 1977 in Saint Louis, MO to parents Warren Branyon and Roslind Wilson. Nicole was preceded in death by her older brother, Antwon Dwight.

Nicole accepted Christ as her savior at an early age. She was educated in the Saint Louis public school system. She had a lifelong passion for Criminal Justice and was pursuing her degree before her untimely passing.

Nicole was a dedicated daughter, mother and grandmother. Her first priority was always her babies; she treasured every moment they had together. No matter the circumstances, her four girls were always on her mind and in her heart.

Nicole was a gifted comic. If you were in her presence, you were laughing. She was a confident soul who strived to embrace her differences in hopes to encourage and serve as an inspiration to all those who crossed her path. She had a giving heart and was willing to counsel and help anyone in need.

She leaves to carry on her spirit her parents, Warren Branyon and Roslind Wilson; her extended parents, Louis Roy Sr. and Gloria Roy; four daughters, Shantesha Branyon (Kennedy), Canesha Roy, Diamond Roy (Angel), and Malaika Mugeru; two grandchildren, Angel and Kennedy; grandmother, Ruby Lindsey; grandfather, John Davis; two sisters, Felicia Hammonds and Catherine Branyon; one extended sister, Michelle Roy; special aunts, Valerie Brown and Meshelle Thomas; special uncle, Carl Branyon; two nieces, Junika Wilson and Janee Wilson; three great nieces, five great nephews, and a host of other family and friends.
