

To My Lovely Wife

You have always meant the world to me.
You were my true soulmate
and I Will Always Love You.

I leave to cherish, Priscilla McSellers

For My Daughter

Baby girl, keep your head up.
My one and only daughter,
I will miss you so much.
I am so proud of you,
continue to stay strong.
My love for you will always be.

I leave to cherish, Danielle McSellers

To My Sons

So proud of the man you have become.
Love on my grandson and remember all I taught you. I Love you son.

I leave to cherish, Daniel McSellers, Jr. (Destinee)

My Baby Boy

My twin, it was an honor to be your father and watch you grow up.
Please forgive me for not being able to be there as you become a man.
Stand proud and know that I will always love you.

I leave to cherish, Deon McSellers

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan—
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me—but let me go.

Obituary

Daniel William McSellers, affectionately known as "Pee Wee," was born October 24, 1974, in St. Louis, Missouri, to the union of Shirley Ann and Daniel McSellers.

He was baptized as an infant at LaSalle United Methodist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend W.T. Wilson, and confirmed as a member at the age of 12 years old under the leadership of the late Reverend Everett Reynolds. Under the direction of Rev. Kevin M. Kosh, Daniel attended the Summer Youth Institute Camp, helped Reverend Kosh with church repairs and cleanup, attended worship service with his family, and served as a youth liturgist.

Daniel attended the St. Louis Public Schools, Webster Groves Elementary School, and Oakville High School. In 1991, Daniel and Priscilla met at Oakville High School and fell in love. They married on August 24, 1997. Priscilla was the love of his life. They enjoyed one another for many years. To this union, three children were born: Daniel, Jr., Danielle, and Deon. He was also excited about his soon to be grandson that will be born this July.

In January 2010, Daniel and Priscilla joined River of Life Evangelist Center, where Daniel recommitted his life to the Lord with Pastor Richard Gunner. Pee Wee loved the company of his family and his friends. He also loved to Karaoke and had a passion for cooking. Pee Wee pursued a career in culinary as a Sous Chef working for several food services. He would cook and host an annual Mother's Day picnic in the park. His dream was to one day own his own catering company, and he wanted to name it "3D's and P." Danan, Otis and Pee Wee were raised in the funeral business of their family funeral home S.J. Watson Mortuary in south St. Louis. He always kept a smile on his face and loved to engage in conversation. He was a provider for his family and loved by many. He will truly be missed.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day." —2 Timothy 4:7

On Wednesday, June 3, 2020, Daniel looked at his sister Danan, smiled, and God gently closed his eyes to the perils of this world. He transitioned to his heavenly home to be with his family that preceded him in death including his grandparents, Daniel and Maxine McSellers, H.D. and Thelma Watt; stepfather, Carl White; uncle/aunt, William and Louise Watson Hudson; siblings, Kimberly McMath, Deborah Johnson, Diane McKinney, and Derrick White; and brother-in-law, Antonio Clemons.

Daniel has left his memories among many: his loving wife of 22 years, Priscilla McSellers; three children, Daniel "DJ" (Destinee) McSellers, Jr., Danielle McSellers, and Deon McSellers; grandson on the way, Daniel W. McSellers III (in July); parents, Shirley Ann Watson and Daniel McSellers; siblings, Danan (DaMon), Islandia (William), Cody (Corey), Michael (LaKeta), Trevaughn (LaTonya), Otis (Shawnte), DeAndre, Peggy (Steven), Patrica, Darnell, and Carl, Jr.; mother-in-law, Ethel Clemons; two sisters-in-law, Mary and Rolanda Clemons; five brothers-in-law, Jessie (Vickie), James, Jr., (Beverly), Charles, Dwayne, and Barry (Carmen) Clemons; two godmothers, Iretha Pampkins and Carla Ransom; an aunt; uncles; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.
