

It Will Never Be Goodbye

Unknown Author

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown during their time of sorrow.

Life Reflections

DARIUS MICAH CRENSHAW was born on February 1, 1994 in St. Louis, MO to a loving mother, Patricia Brown, and Larry Crenshaw. His wonderful mother, Patricia Brown, preceded him in death.

Darius was educated at Normandy Senior High School and then entered employment with the St. Louis Postal Service.

Darius loved playing video games and hanging outside with his friends and family. He would always be heard saying "What's the word!" or "We jamming!" when he entered a room. His squeaky laugh always made jokes funnier and his infectious smile lit up the room. Darius' favorite color was red and he loved coordinating his outfits and matching from head to toe.

Darius leaves to cherish his memory: his loving grandmother, Salome Brown; four loving siblings, brothers, Corey Crenshaw, Larry Crenshaw II, Dorian Crenshaw and sister, Keona Crenshaw; two aunts, one uncle and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

Don't think of him as gone away -
his JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets -
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

In the Hearts And think of him as living of those he touched
For nothing loved is ever lost -
And he was loved so much.
