

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me.

I took his hand I heard him call,
Then turned, and bid farewell to all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found my peace... at close of play.

And if my parting left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened... deep with sorrow,
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full I've savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with grief.

Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... HE SET ME FREE.

Acknowledgement

With so much gratitude, the family of ANNIE BELL MILLER would like to thank each of you for your kind expressions of love. The cards, floral arrangements, condolences, phone calls, hugs and especially your prayers, were a comfort. ## Life Reflections

On Monday, October 12, 2020, ANNIE BELL CUMMINGS MILLER of Waterford, MS entered into rest at the age of 89. She was born on February 21, 1931 to the late Robert and Betty Cummings of Waterford, MS and raised by her loving grandparents, Benjamin and Annie Walker.

Annie accepted the Lord at an early age and joined Hamilton Chapel CME Church. She received her primary education in the Mississippi Industrial School System. She was employed for over twenty years at the University of Mississippi as a Cook until retirement. She married Ezekiel Miller, Jr., and lived a happy life until his death.

The joy of Annie's life came in loving and doting on her children, Betty, Bernard, Alvin (deceased), Keith, and Carolyn. In 2004, Annie moved to St. Louis, where she spent her senior years surrounded by her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She daily sat in her recliner, knowing everyone's schedules and keeping everyone on track for what they had to accomplish each day. We jokingly called it "turning the world from her easy chair."

After moving to St. Louis, she joined First Baptist Church of Kinloch, where she met and gained many dear friends. Her passions were putting together 1000-piece jigsaw puzzles, reading her bible, watching Christian TV, talking to all of her friends and family from home, and her weekly 'Pitty Pat' card game with her son Keith.

She leaves to cherish her memories her daughters, Betty and Carolyn; sons, Bernard (Audrey) and Keith (Loretta); her grandchildren, Kenny, Bernard, Jr., Jasmine, Heather, Ashley, Gabrielle, and great grandsons, Aaron and Ramel; cousins, relatives, and friends.
