

Loving Memories

From Mother:

Daughter, you were so special to me
I loved to see you happy and all dressed up
Ready to go out and have fun with your friends.

But you are gone way, way too soon.

I love you, my friend, my daughter.
I'll miss your smiling face and the warm,
Pleasant glow you brought when you entered a room.

Love Mom

From Father:

To my first born, I'll love you always.

Daddy is going to miss you.

Love Dad

Life Reflections

Articia Alyss Johnson was born December 19, 2001 at DePaul Hospital to Felicia Miller and Anthony Johnson, Sr. She was baptized at a young age. She attended church regularly with her grandmother at St. Michael and St. Raphael Spiritual House of Prayer by Bishop Dan Ishman, Sr.

Articia was soon to return to her job as a Daycare Attendant. She loved working with children and had aspirations of being a Registered Nurse. She loved hanging out with friends. She loved people and she could talk with strangers as if she knew them. She also had a listening ear.

Articia is survived by her mother Felicia Johnson, Father Anthony Johnson, Sr., her only brother Anthony Johnson, Jr., grandmothers Patricia Miller and Artena Ahammer and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
