

A Tribute To My Mother

Mom, you truly lived by your name "Patience," as you were "patient" and nurturing towards everyone. You were like a ray of sunshine and brightened the room with your smile. I am blessed to have so many wonderful memories of you which I will share with your grandchildren. Mom you will always remain in our heart and memory and your legacy will live on. Thank you for all the sacrifices you made for me; I am forever grateful.
I will love you forever until we meet again.

Love Always,
Jeffrey

A Tribute To My Step-Mother

Sometimes someone comes into your life and they bring fun and joy into your life. For me that was Pat. Pat was a woman full of life lessons and always imparted them onto me. I will always remember the times we spent cooking, and you teaching me the proper way to tie my wrapper. I will cherish all of the memories and share them with my son.

Love Always,
Adenike

A Tribute To My Sister UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile

If only I could have you back for just a little while
Then we can sit and talk and laugh again just like we used to do
You always meant so much to me and always will do too
The fact that you are no longer here will always cause me pain but you are forever in my heart until we meet again Big Sister
Love you always, Omatie

REFLECTIONS IN THE LIFE OF Patience Agbigbe-Dodolewa

Born Patience Odiri Agbigbe in Lagos, Nigeria, on August 26, 1968, Patience was born to the union of Margaret Edogboro Agbigbe of Ugbomoja Water side, Jesse Ethiope West LGA Delta State Nigeria and William Adidi Agbigbe of Ovwomougbo, Jesse Ethiope West LGA Delta State Nigeria.

Affectionately called Odiri, she attended Secondary school at Chude Girls Grammar school, Sapele Delta state Nigeria. Upon graduation she gave birth to her son Jeffrey Otivere Akougbo.

Odiri moved to the United States in 1990 to further her studies and become closer with family. She continued her education at Florissant Valley Community College focusing her studies in the healthcare field. While studying her body was attacked by cancer. She was determined to survive and live despite the doctor's diagnosis. She took her skills from school and did what made her happy, nurturing and taking care of people.

While working hard she met the second love of her life Adebayo Dodolewa. In 2005 they traveled to Nigeria to join themselves in holy matrimony.

While in America, she became a member of the Urhobo Progress Union now known as Urhobo Cultural Association as well as the Redeemed Christian Church Of God in North America. As a member of Urhobo Cultural Association, she became known for her Pepper Soup and her overall good cooking!

On December 26, 2020, Odiri answered a call from God and ascended to her heavenly home. She went to join her beloved brothers, Ogheneovo Agbigbe and Onoriode Agbigbe and her Uncle Sampson Agbigbe in the arms of God. She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved husband, Adebayo Dodolewa and also her beloved parents. Odiri also has left two children Jeffrey Okougbo (Virginia) and Adenike Dodolewa. She also leaves to cherish her memory 3 sweet grandchildren: Izoduwa J. Okougbo, Itohan E. Okougbo, and Adekunle K. Dodolewa , as well as siblings: Omatie Agbigbe, William Agbigbe, Jr., Gordon Agbigbe, Ovie Agbigbe, and Ivie Agbigbe.

A Tribute To My Beloved Wife THE DAY SHE LEFT

*We watched her suffer,
day by day;
It caused us bitter grief;
To see her slowly pine away;
And could not give relief.
Her weary hours and
days of pain;
Her troubled nights are past;
And in our aching hearts
we know;
She has found sweet rest at last.
'Tis sweet to know
we will meet again;
Where parting is no more;
And my dear wife I loved so well;
Has only gone before.
God knows how much I miss her;
He counts the tears I shed;
And whispers,
"Hush, she only sleeps;
Your wife is not dead."*

*Some day, some time,
my years shall see;
The face I loved so well.
Some day, some time,
her hand I'll clasp;
And never say farewell.*

*The pearly gates were opened;
A gentle voice said "Come,"
And with farewells unspoken;
She gently entered home.
Her smiling way
and pleasant face;
Are a pleasure to recall;
She had a kindly word for each;
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet her;
Some day, we know not when;
To clasp her hand
in the better land;
Never to part again.*

*Loving You Forever,
Adebayo Dodolewa*
