

Broken Chain

By Ron Tranmer

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly.
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

~From Cousin Patrice Bryant

The Cord

To my Baby

We are connected, my child and I,
by an invisible cord not seen by the eye.
It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth
This cord can't be seen by any on Earth.
This cord does its work right from the start.
It binds us together attached to my heart.
I know that it's there though no one can see
The invisible cord from my child to me.
The strength of this cord is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed, it can't be denied.
It's stronger than any cord man could create.
It withstands the test, can hold any weight.
And though you are gone, though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there, but no one can see.
It pulls at my heart, I am bruised... I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline as never before.
I am thankful that God connects us this way
A mother and child, death can't take it away!

~Love Always, Mama

Reflection of Life

Ryan Markel Hughes was born on November 11, 1979, in St. Louis, Missouri, to Sheila Hughes-Bell and Ray Lambert. Ryan was baptized under the leadership of Reverend Murphy Turner. His grandmother, Ann Hughes, uncle, Daryl, and brother, Jaron Blocker, preceded him in death.

Ryan attended Hazelwood School District and graduated from North County Technical School. He later received his HVAC certification and Culinary degree. He was employed at Gingham Restaurant in St. Charles, Missouri.

Ryan, also known as BobbyJo, was a quiet and humble person. He loved his family and was happiest when hanging out with his cousins. He also loved to sing, go fishing, camp, and chill out with his dog, Storm. He was infamous for being the greatest narrator of the Left Right Game at family Christmas gatherings.

Ryan loved spending time with his children, Jada, Benjamin, and Piper, and his niece and nephews, Amore, Mi'Asia, and Royal.
