

P The LORD is my Shepherd;
S I shall not want.
 He maketh me to
 lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters,
 He restoreth my
A soul.
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the L valley of the shadow of death.
M I will fear no evil:
S for Thou art with me;
 Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
 Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over 2 Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house
3 of the LORD forever.

Life Reflections

MRS. FAYE PARIS, daughter of Miss Annie Walker who preceded her in death, was born on January 22, 1950 in St. Louis, Missouri. Her oldest sister, Ms. Diann Jones; her youngest sister, Bonnie Duncan; a brother, Arvin Walker-Bey; and a daughter, Andreea Rene Paris also preceded her in death.

Faye received her education via St. Louis Public Schools.

She would later meet and wed Mr. Leon Paris who also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Paris worked in the factory industry where she would retire after 20+ years of service. She was a calm, quiet, pillar of strength who was always present whether it be through a phone call or in-person at an event.

Faye departed this life on Thursday, March 18, 2021. She selflessly chose to be an organ donor and we take comfort in knowing she was able to donate her liver to a 62-year-old man.

Left not to mourn, but shine in her light, are a daughter, Laura Walker; a son, Leon Walker-Paris; granddaughter Andreea Whitley-Bailey (Keith); a great granddaughter, Timya; two great grandsons, Malik and Kingston; two brothers, Warren L. Walker and Gregory L. Walker (Raven); two sisters, Donna S. Cole and Keena Davis (Ricky). She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends who were near and dear to her heart. May you all feel how much she loved and cared for her family.

Gone...but never forgotten.
