The Life, Love, and Legacy of Mrs. Lillie B. Anderson

LIFE:

Lillie was born on March 18, 1940 in Winnsboro, Louisiana to Purvis and Rosie Whatley. She was one of eight children. Her parents and all her siblings - David, Pierre, Jessie, Bobbie, Rosie Lee, George, and Purvis, Jr., all preceded her in death.

Lillie accepted Christ at a young age and all who knew her, knew her love for God, family and friends.

Lillie was educated in the Winnsboro Public School System where she met the love of her life - Charlie Anderson. The two married in 1956 and to their union nine children were born. Charlie accepted a position at Westlake Rock Quarry, and they relocated to St. Louis, MO.

Lillie found her passion working in the nursing field as a Certified Nursing Assistant where she met life-long friends and always had a story to tell about her daily experiences. Family is what brought her the most joy and with nine children at home, there was always music, fun, food and plenty of laughter.

LOVE:

Lillie never met a stranger and the love that she showed to her children and grandchildren was immeasurable. She LOVED to travel and EVERYBODY knows how much she loved the casino!! A good barbeque in the backyard while listening to The Blues, was her idea of a great time. Although her health started to fade, she continued to do the things she loved most and never allowed her circumstances to get in front of her... SHE FOUGHT A GREAT FIGHT! In addition to her parents and siblings, Lillie was preceded in death by her husband, Charlie Anderson, and one son, Charles.

LEGACY:

Lillie will be greatly missed and remembered for the love she showed by her loving children: Shirley, Lillie Jean (Raymond), Hattie, Ronald, Carl, Rosalyn (Darrly), Tanya, and Charlese (Mark Sr.); grandchildren: Patrick, Rashida, Olandas, Roderick, Raykida, Kendall, Ivan, Dajuan, Carl Jr., Iona, Raneisha, Charles, Kendria, Rayshell, Charniese, Mark Jr., Lila, Kenyia, Dremond, Carley, Abigail, Partice, Todd Jr., Imani, Roderick Jr., Ryan; 22 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews and cousins and countless broken hearts.
