WHAT IS AN UNCLE

*An Uncle is a special gift, Received from God above.
He starts out with kindness, Then adds an abundance of love.
He taught you to do so many things, Just as if he were your dad.
You could talk to him about anything,
Then suddenly things didn't seem so bad.
His devotion is unconditional, To that there is no end.
And as you get older, He becomes more like a friend.
He is always willing to help you, Any way that he can.
Watching you grow up, He was your biggest fan.
He has tremendous faith in you, He just has that special touch.
It's no wonder then dear Uncle, Why you are loved so much!*

Reflections of Life

KRAIG K. MOORE was born June 25th, 1981 to Emma Jean Moore and Freddie James Moore. The youngest of three children, Kraig was a gift and joy to the Moore household; he was the happiest of babies and grew to be a comedic, helping hand.

Kraig graduated from Hazelwood East High School in 2000, a place where he met lifelong friends Marvin Hobson, Victor Thomas, and Melissa Licavoli.

In early adulthood, he put his gift of gab to use as he explored telecommunications at AT&T and studied information technology at the collegiate level.

Ever curious, Kraig was a self-proclaimed nerd at heart, and he explored his intellectual pursuits through his massive comic book collection, countless hours of Legend of Zelda, and interest in Greek and Abrahamic mythology.

In 2015, Kraig met his wife Onicka Williams. He joined Onicka in her hometown, Louisville, and planted new roots as he became a part of the Williams family. She held his hand as he transitioned to the next stage of existence on June 26th, 2021, one day after his 40th birthday.

Kraig leaves behind a host of loved ones to cherish his memories: his wife, Onicka Williams; his mother, Emma Jean Moore; his siblings, Charlotte Moore and Kerry Moore; and his niece, Sydnee Johnson.
