Reflections of a Sweet Princess ~ Skyy Sabrina Moore

On April 11, 2021, Courtney Nicole Moore gave birth to a beautiful baby girl whom she named Skyy Sabrina Moore. Skyy spent her first days in the NICU of Saint Mary's Hospital; but with her mother's love and many prayers, she went home a healthy 5lb bundle of joy.

From the beginning, Courtney and Skyy were inseparable. Skyy spent every day being loved and cared for by her mother, and at the end of the day, you could find Skyy nestled in her mom's loving arms watching Cocomelon or listening to the song, True Colors, from the movie Trolls. Skyy was a happy, spirited, giggly baby who quickly acquired the nickname Petunia. Sadly and tragically, tragedy stepped in on October 4, and at five months old, God gave Skyy her wings and called His little angel home.

Skyy will be remembered by her mother, Courtney; grandparents, Margie Moore, Craig Moore, and Jason Lane; aunts, Nia Moore, Jalah Davis, Jamiya Lane, and Ebonly Lane; uncles, Jayson Moore and KC Smith; cousins, Rhylee Moore and Winter Smith; great grandparents and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins who loved her.

Time

Time is like a clock that never rewinds. Ticking away effortlessly, leaving no thought in mind. Each second promptly following the last. And before you know it, oh how time has passed. We occasionally look at how far time has grown. Not realizing, that simple time has long gone.

It just creeps away never uttering a word. Flying away like winged birds.

Time is precious, but often taken for granted. Presenting itself as a hopeless romantic.

Making you believe in it, day after day. Until simple time has just went away.

And to think, we only watch numbers on a clock. Tick.....Tick.....Tick....Tock

5.....4.....6.....3.....4.....Until time and life are no more.

But God gave 5....5 months, 4....4 days, 6....6 hours, 3 and 4....34 minutes, To my beautiful granddaughter Skyy, And now the time has come to say goodbye.

My Sweet Girl Nana loves you.
