Acknowledgement

We don't remember what you said but your words spoke to our heart!
We don't remember what you did but that you were a vital part.
We can't recall just what you gave but we know it was your best!
For all you said, did and gave, you helped our minds to rest.
May God Bless you all for your love, support, and prayers.

Reflections of Life

Alfred Deshawn Mayes, aka Snapps, son of Carolyn Perry and Alfred Mayes, Sr., was born on September 27, 1988 in Los Angeles, California. He was the fourth of seven siblings. Alfred spent most of his younger and adult life going back and forth between Los Angeles and St. Louis. In 2006, his mother and siblings relocated to St. Louis to live permanently.

Alfred believed in Jesus Christ and was saved at a very young age. He attended school in Los Angeles and received his GED in Chuckawalla Valley. Snapps character and personality was out the roof. He had an uncanny ability to make you laugh and cry at the same time.

He was very quiet and laid-back and loved to be in bed watching music videos, singing, and rapping. He loved oldies, and he loved to clean. Snapps would often help his mother around the house. Alfred was caring and very helpful with his mom. He was very over-protective of her due to her sickness and always wanted the best for her. Snapps was truly a 'Momma's Boy' and they had a very special bond. He would get a kick and a laugh out of calling his mother's name out loud with a voice of a sense of danger or urgency just to see her reaction. Alfred had a beautiful soul and he wanted to do so much for his family and friends. He wanted to be a big help whenever he could and would give you the shoes off his feet if you needed it.

Alfred Deshawn Mayes departed this world on Wednesday, December 1, 2021 at 2:10pm He was preceded in death by one brother, Marvelle Kindle; one nephew, Marquies Miller, Jr.; his grandmother, Virdlee Perry; grandfather, Earl "Pokey" Perry; uncle, Charles Earl Perry; and aunts, Jessie Mae Allen, Susie Mae Perry, and LouVenia Perry.

He leaves to cherish his memories with his three children, his mother, Carolyn Perry; father, Alfred Mayes, Sr.; sisters, Clarice Washington, Clynesha Pickens, and Tiara Lane; brothers, Bobby Washington and Markes Kindle; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and friends.

THE CORD

*We are connected,
MY CHILD AND I,
by an invisible cord
not seen by the eye.*

*It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth.
This cord can't be seen by any on Earth.*

*This cord does its work right from the start.
It binds us together, attached to my heart.*

*I know that it's there though no one can see
The invisible cord from my child to me.*

*The strength of this cord is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed, it can't be denied.*

*It's stronger than any cord man could create.
It withstands the test, can hold any weight.*

*And though you are gone,
though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there, but no one can see.*

*It pulls at my heart, I am bruised...I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline as never before.*

*I am thankful that God
connects us this way
A MOTHER AND CHILD,
death can't take it away!*

ETERNAL LOVE,
Mom
