

Obituary

The sun rose for William M. Moore, Sr. on June 12, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. The beloved son of Marshall and Hazel Moore. Growing up in Baltimore with his two brothers John and Gantt and one sister Carlotta. Butch which he was affectionately called, was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools in Maryland. William departed this life on July 4, 2021 at the Gilchrist Hospice Center, Baltimore, MD.

After graduating high school William served two years in the United States Army as a Reservist.

On September 22, 1963 William married the love of his life, Carolyn Lee Harvey, who preceded him in death. They were the proud parents of Anthony and William, Jr. who preceded him in death.

William accepted Christ at an early age, eventually being ordained as a Deacon and a Minister of the Gospel, under the leadership of the late Bishop Kevin Rogers of the New Fellowship Baptist Church, Baltimore. Later joining The Rising Sun Baptist Church of Baltimore, where he served as an Assistant Minister under the leadership of his late brother-in-law Bishop Daniel E. Moore. In 1991, he became a member of New Antioch Baptist Church of Randallstown, serving as a devoted member of the Ministerial staff, the Senior Ministry and the Male Chorus. After leaving Baltimore and relocating to Halifax County, NC, he became an active member of Tillery Chapel Baptist Church. And later Twilight Baptist Church of Halifax.

William retired from Westinghouse in 1993 after over 20 years of service. William continued to work as a truck driver and doing home improvement.

William loved to sing and became known for his anointed silky voice often being invited by churches throughout Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina to minister the gospel through song.

William was a devoted husband, father and grandfather and would go out his way to help those in need.

He leaves to cherish his memory his son Anthony, Sr. (Rochelle), his loving and devoted grandchildren, Taywan (Kenae), William III, and Briana. Also, grandsons Walter of Nevada and Anthony Jr. of North Carolina and granddaughters Akia of Pennsylvania and Maryah of North Carolina; 8 great grandchildren; daughter-in-law Angela Moore, sister Carlotta Welch and sister-in-law Dorothy Chambers (Bill); aunts Cossie Graves and Alice Moore, both of Virginia; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
