The family gratefully acknowledges the many kind and beautiful expressions of sympathy and love shown during our hour of bereavement. A special thank you to Matt and Pauline Lloyd.

Poem from Daughter

I Love You Dad

What can you say to someone
Who has always been one of the most essential parts of my world
Someone who took you by the hand when you were little and helped to show the way?

What do you say to someone who stood by to help you grow
Providing love, strength and support
So you could become the person you are today?

What can you say to let him know that he's the best there is
And that you hope you've inherited some of his Wisdom and strength?

What words would you say if you ever got the chance?
Maybe you just say, I love You Dad
And hope he understands.
Love,
Shamira

Poem from Sisters

God's garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best.
He knew you were suffering. He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb.
He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you the day God called you home!
Love,

Words from his Wife

You were the man of my dreams. Never had someone love me like you did.
You were tough, yet tender. Always concerned about me. Always looking Out for me. We had some good times and some challenging times due to Your health. But, you were always resilient and kept bouncing back. Who Knew that this last bout would take you out. But, you are in a better place,
With no more pain or suffering. I miss you already and will always love you,
Bodie Booker.
Love,
Bonnie
