

Life Reflections

Denise A. Powell was born on September 12, 1962 to mother Beverly Adams and father James Coles in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly on Monday, September 20, 2021 in Baltimore, Maryland.

She received her education at Southern High School in South Baltimore.

She loved reading, writing, listening to music and dancing. She was a lovable person to be around. She went on to work at University Hospital in the housekeeping department for years. Then she became a stay at home mother to her two daughters who she loved dearly.

To her friends she was known as Nisey, easy to talk to and a good hearted person. She also enjoyed making people laugh and tell jokes. She was the life of all the parties she attended. She lived her life to the fullest. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She was a devoted grandmother, great grandmother to her grandkids, she loved them more than life itself. We are going to miss you old girl.

To her family she known as Niece, Sister, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, Aunt and Friend, Denise your family loves you unconditionally our leading lady we are going to miss you like crazy.

She was preceded in death by mother Beverly Adams; father James Coles and brother Gregory Coles.
