

Obituary

Roland Ward Scott was born on April 12, 1940 to the late Pete and Mildred T. Scott in Garysburg, North Carolina. Out of 13 siblings he has two sisters Irin Sims of Baltimore and Ahleata (Robert) of North Carolina, one brother Russle Lee Scott of North Carolina.

Roland Scott was educated in North Carolina.

In 1968 he moved his family to Baltimore, where he obtained a job working at Bethlehem Steel, building ships for many years. He also worked for the Coast Guard repairing ships.

His hobbies were listening to music and playing his guitar. Most of all one thing he loved most, was fishing, now that was his passion.

Loved ones who preceded him in death Lisa, Cindy, Frankie and his beloved wife, Dorothy Scott.

Loved by many, cherished by most: Annie Scott (his first wife); three daughters Sandra Elmore, Mildred Dunson (Nate) and Angelous (Christ) Jackson all of Baltimore; three sons Roland Jr. (Lisa) Scott of Baltimore, Michael Belfield of North Carolina and Derrick of Baltimore; 2 stepchildren, 22 grands, 28 great grands; 4 great great grands and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

When we love, we forever keep that love in our heart, for love is immortal. Our memories preserve what is true and reminds us of the past. So in times when you feel alone look within your heart and know we will always be there.
