I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss:
Ah yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Leonard Leon
MORRISON

DECEMBER 30, 1974 - APRIL 18, 2022

"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace."

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Obituary

Leonard L. Morrison passed away on Monday, April 18, 2022, at his home in Pineville, North Carolina.

Leonard was born on December 30, 1974, in Welch, West Virginia to the late Ronald Lemar Morrison, Sr., and Dorothy Burger.

Leonard had a very good sense of humor. Crazy as ever. He was a loving and caring man. He would do anything to make you laugh. He loved his sister and brothers. He loved and was protective of his mother. He was very respectful of others.

Leonard's greatest joy was being a loving father to Genisha, his daughter, and uncle to Danielle and Katie, his nieces. He loved his family. He had a strong love, and he looked up to his uncle Walter, who was his hero.

Left to cherish his memory are: mother, Dorothy Warren; brother, Ronald L. Morrison (Erica); daughter, Genisha Morrison; fiancé, Jacqueline Grant; brother, Daniel Walker, Jr.; nieces, Danielle Stewart and Katie Morrison; aunts, Gail Burger, Vickie Johnson, and Evelyn Prunty; uncles, Jerome, Charles, Edward, Samuel, and Eugene; and many, many cousins whom he loved dearly.

Preceding him in death were his sister, Doretha E. Jenkins; father, Ronald Lemar Morrison, Sr.; and stepfather, Calvin Jenkins.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes Filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand
That Jesus came and called my name And took me by the hand
And said my place was ready In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love.
So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*
