Obituary

Sunrise

Shannon Lorraine O'Connor was born October 6, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland to Francis O'Connor and Tina Tenney. She had four siblings, David Signoriello, Williams Tenney, Natalie Signoriello, Nicole Signoriello.

A Time to Grow

Being of the Non-Denomination religion, at an early age Shannon received Christ as her Personal Savior. She received her formal education at Patterson Senior High School in Baltimore, MD. She was one of the top 3 in her graduating class. Upon graduation, she obtained an Associate's Degree in Social Studies from Baltimore County Community College. She also attended and graduated from Test Medical School and Sanz School of Nursing in Maryland. Shannon worked in the medical field for over 10 years. She has served as a Medical Assistant, Nurse, and Cardio Technician. Shannon was employed at Cardio Associates until the time of her death. She loved her job and every patient. With her big personality, she was known to leave a lasting impression with everyone she came in contact with. One of her proudest accomplishments was assisting the Doctors who worked with the Baltimore Ravens, Washington Redskins, The Washington Nationals and the Baltimore Orioles.

A Time to Love

Shannon was united in Holy Matrimony to Rodney Graham for eleven years.

Sunset

Shannon departed this life on Tuesday, September 3, 2019, at Prince Georges Community Hospital in Cheverly, Maryland to be with her Lord and Savior. She was preceded in death by her sister, Nicole Signoriello; mother-in-law, Ella Gene McMadden; and two brothers-in-law, Bernard Brogdon.

She leaves her loving and precious memories to be cherished by her loving husband, Rodney Graham of Hyattsville, MD; a step daughter, Chyna Robinson of Kingsport, Tn; two brothers, David Signoriello, and William Tenney both of Baltimore, MD; sister, Natalie Signoreillo of Baltimore, MD; father-in-law, Major (Rosa) Mcfadden III of Manning, SC; brothers-in-law, Reginald McFadden of New Zion, SC, and Anthony (Julia) Graham of Kingstree, SC; and sister-in-law, Remona Brogdon; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends that will miss her dearly.
