Our Memories

Choosing to embrace life and the possibilities as well as the gifts hidden in her suffering. Leaving you mad about something she said or did and her moving on to the next adventure. Not holding back her opinion and the knack of telling it like it is. Telling you the truth even if it wasn't what you wanted to hear. Loving her brothers and sisters unconditionally. Loving her in-laws as her brothers and sisters. Considering life as a gift every single day. Cooking with little or no seasonings.

Her tenacity, wit, charm and grace.

REV. SAMMY L. WADE - PASTOR

Mrs. Ethel Rochelle
DANIELS

MARCH 19, 1957 - NOVEMBER 21, 2019

Mrs. Ethel Rochelle Daniels

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Isaiah 53:5 KJV

Broken is our family circle, our precious one has passed away. Ethel Rochelle Parson Daniels, who always put first and dearly loved her family, was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and sister.

Sister Rochelle was born March 19,1957 in Salters, South Carolina to the late James Hovie and Ora Lee Smith Parson. She accepted Christ and joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Greeleyville, SC at an early age. She later became a faithful member of St. John Baptist Church, Hopkins, SC. Even in her illness, she continued to work diligently as president of the Trustee Spouse’s Ministry, secretary of the Board of Christian Education, member of the Health and Wellness Ministry, chairperson of the Angel Tree Ministry and as a volunteer with the Food Pantry.

Rochelle received her formal education in the public schools of Williamsburg County. She earned her bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Benedict College, Columbia, South Carolina. After graduation from Benedict College, she was employed with the Johnson, Toal and Battiste Law Firm. She later joined the staff of Midlands Technical College where she served as Director of Procurement for nearly thirty years. Rochelle served as president of South Carolina Government Purchasing Officials (SCAGPO). She was an avid community activist. She worked on several political campaigns. Rochelle was the founder of the Sickel Cell Anemia Disease Society (SCADS) of Williamsburg County, in honor of her sister Vernell P. Graham, a sickle cell warrior.

Loved ones who will always cherish her memories are: The love of her life, Mack Daniels of the home. Their sons, Donson Demario (Lavoia) Daniels of Columbia, SC; Vincent (Kristie) Daniels and Kevin (Ashley) Daniels of Charlotte, NC. Eleven grandchildren, Demaria; Natouri; Kelsi; Samara; Andre; Nathaniel; Charlie; Nicholas; Jayden; Ayana; Keyshawn. Two brothers, Deacon James (Celia Mae) Parson, Deacon Boykin (Jackie) Parson both of Greeleyville, SC; three sisters, Gwendolyn (Vander) Fleming of Manning, SC, Vernell P. Graham of Greeleyville, SC, and Deloris (Victor) Huges of Hopkins, SC; four sisters-in-law and four brothers-in-law; one aunt, Thelma Smith Matthews; three aunts in-law; two cousins who were like sisters D’Jarius Cole-White, Joyce Daniels Sims; along with many adoring nieces, caring nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho’ from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

R.I.P.

A light from our family is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in the home
Which never can be filled.
We have to mourn the loss of one
We would’ve loved to keep
But God who surely loved her best
Has finally made her sleep.
After a lifetime of her love and joy
And music to fill our ears
God leaves these wondrous memories
To help us through our tears.

Grandmother

You’re like a ray of Sunshine
Whose heart is made of Gold.
You beam with Happiness
that’ll never grow Old.
You’ll always stay in my Heart Forever.
We Laughed, we Smiled and we Cried.
I LOVE YOU, so very much and still throughout the years
We share the Grandmother Granddaughter love,
and always when I Fear.
I know I’ll always have my Grandmother
Somewhere Near!
