Obituary

Ms. Debera L. Armstrong was born April 10, 1969 in Buffalo, New York. She was the youngest child of Elizabeth McCord and the late John Jerry Armstrong. She was raised by her adoptive mother, Bernice Mickens. At an early age, she was baptized, and again as an adult. Debera was a true believer of God and she gave praise to Him each day of her life. She departed this earthly life on December 28, 2019, surrounded by her family.

Debera attended Dreher High School. She worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant, as she had a passion for taking care of others. She thoroughly loved spending time with her children and grandchildren! They were her pride and joy. She was never alone because she always had her fur babies by her side, Gizmo and Rusty.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories a devoted family: one daughter, Ashton Jones and her son-in-love Timothy R. Jones; two sons, Charles A. Armstrong and Michael T. Armstrong; sisters Mary Montgomery (Bernard), Darlyne Armstrong, Angela Shumpert, Belinda Pringle (Mickey); one brother, Darryl Armstrong; five grandchildren; LynnMarie Jones, Kyndall Jones, Ryleigh Jones, Michael Armstrong, Jr., and Mason Armstrong; nieces Tilynelya Armstrong and Shaneaqua Pringle ; two great nieces Taylor Gadson and Jhakyra Armstrong; sister-in-love Marie Jones; best friend Alfreda Herbert, and a host of other relatives and friends who will all miss her dearly.

Private Family Burial

The Angel To Whom I Was Given

One day I was given to an Angel in disguise
Who's beautiful, yet so fragile wings were tattered beyond recognize

But this Angel to whom I was given, what a heart of gold had she Who had yet to realize how important she would be

This Angel to whom I was given so selfless, So giving as can be Who shares her gift of mercy so that others may be free

This Angel to whom I was given is so faithful, so true
Who would lay down her own life if it meant salvation of one or a few

This Angel to whom I was given so thoughtful, so kind Whose never-ending love and prayers are the reason I'll be fine

This Angel to whom I was given is a blessing, My hero all the time
I am so proud to call her Mom, this beautiful Angel of mine
