Life's Reflections

*A precious one from us is gone, a voice we love is still.
A place is vacant in our hearts which cannot be filled.
Sincere and true in heart and mind, beautiful memories she leaves behind.*

A time to be born
Debra Ann Saunders born on November 18, 1970 in Florence, SC to the late Rose Mary Saunders and Rufus Byrd.

She was preceded in death by her brother Marty McCray.

A time to grow and to learn
She attended the public schools of Florence, SC and was a member of New Ebenezer Baptist Church.

A time to love
She was committed to a lifelong partner Sharon Bethea.

A time to serve
Debra served as a head cook and general manager for several companies in the surrounding area of Florence County. She was a dedicated, loving caregiver to her family and anyone who needed her. "If she said it, she did it." Debra was a queen at heart and a diva to her name.

Debra leaves to cherish her loving mother; Margie Byrd and father; Rufus Byrd of Florence, SC, the father of her children; Michael Wilson Sr., children; Rosemary Saunders, Danny Saunders, Michael Wilson Jr., Latasha Saunders, son-in-law; Steven Williams Jr., all of Florence, SC, a loving devoted sister; Christal McCray of Florence, SC., nieces; Tonia and Rosetta McCray of Florence, SC, nephew; Shawn McCray of Baltimore Maryland and a host of aunts and uncles and other relatives. Debra is a guardian angel to nineteen grandchildren whom she loves dearly. She also leaves behind three step sisters; Victoria Byrd, Amanda Byrd, and Rosemary Brunson, long life friends; Tamantha Thomas, Symantha Johnson, and Niecy Taylor, all of who miss her dearly.
