-The Family

Her Journey Just Began

Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days or years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much

Obituary

Sallie Mae Sims Goodwin, 72 Hopkins, South Carolina, died on Monday, September 20, 2020 at Prisma Health Richland, Columbia, South Carolina.

Sallie spent nearly her entire life in Lower Richland County, South Carolina, where she was born Sallie Sims on August 26, 1948.

Over 30 Years ago, she met and founded a home with the love of her life, Steve Donald Brown, Sr. From that time, they partnered in all they did, including years of lawn maintenance in the Columbia area.

The warm smile and kind expression was always on Sallie's face; it reflected her deep Christian faith. That faith translated into love, goodness, and compassion to all she met. She once stated, "When I was young, I could have been angry for some things that happened, but I decided I'd just be the best person I could be." And so she was.

Sallie was preceded in death by her only daughter, Lori Diane Sims; life partner, Steve Brown Sr.; grandparents, Joe and Sallie Sims; mother, Maggie Sims Davis; and stepfather, Allen Davis.

Sallie is survived by her siblings, Ethel Sims Hunter of Atlanta, Ga; Earl Goodwin of Columbia, SC; Alice (Ben) Sims Garrick of Hopkins, SC; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and good friends that will miss her dearly.
