

In Loving Memory of

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do, miss me, but let me go.

Life's Reflections

Our hearts were saddened by the home calling of our beloved Nancy A. Holmes of Columbia, South Carolina. Nancy was born to the late Marion and Celeste Goodwin on November 13, 1940. She joined our Heavenly Father on the morning of October 9, 2020. Though our days are long with grief, we rejoice in knowing that she is resting in our Father's care. Her strength and love follows us all the days of our lives.

Nancy was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School; in 1958. At an early age she was baptized at First Nazareth Baptist Church. Nancy later moved to New York City, where she met and married her late husband James E. Holmes. From this union they had four children, Darryl Holmes, Greg Holmes, Lesley Holmes, and her late daughter Angela Holmes.

She worked in the local community centers and USPS. Nancy's family was everything to her. Her strength and love was an inspiration to all of us.

Our beloved is survived by her three children, Darryl, Greg, and Lesley; a sister, Edna Lee, four grandchildren, four great grandchildren; cousins, and a host of relatives and friends.
