

Expression of Gratitude

The Family of Mr. Willie R. Weston would like to take this time to sincerely thank Ann Harris (his care taker) and everyone for the outpouring of love and support during our time of sadness. The kindness and generosity is truly appreciated and we are forever grateful.

The Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see.
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry. The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me. I'm right there in your heart.

-Love Willie

Obituary

“I am the resurrection, and the life: He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die”

-John 11:25-26

Mr. Willie Ray Weston was born January 22, 1939 in Eastover, SC to the late Beauregard and Elizabeth Bynum Weston. He entered into eternal rest on January 9, 2021 peacefully at his home.

Willie was a member of Red Hill Baptist Church and St. Mark Baptist Church in Gadsden, SC where he was a faithful servant and taught Bible Study for many years. Mr. Weston was educated in the public schools system of Richland County, South Carolina. He retired from B. F. McMahon Inc as a head supervisor in Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Weston also did various jobs for the community. He never met a stranger from delivering food baskets to those in his community and in his family. No task was too big for him.

Willie Weston was preceded in death by his parents Beauregard and Elizabeth Bynum Weston of Eastover, South Carolina; two brothers, Frank and Nathaniel Weston of Columbia, South Carolina, and one sister, Stella Weston of Columbia, South Carolina.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, three sisters, Charlotte (Jimmy) West of Gadsden, South Carolina, Ethel Weston of Columbia, South Carolina and Evelyn Washington of Columbia, South Carolina, thirteen nephews, twelve nieces and a host of other loving relatives and caring friends all whom will miss him dearly. Mr. Weston also leaves to cherish his memories his extended family, Petty Officer First Class (E-6) Marcus Harris of the United States Navy who he reared as his son, Shonta Harris and the rest of the Harris Family.
