

God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be.
He wrapped his arms around you and whispered, "Come to me."
You didn't deserve what you went through, he gave you needed rest.
God's Garden must be beautiful.
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

Reflection

Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed, and very dear.

In Loving Memory

Rosa Lee Booth Minor was born September 15, 1930, to the late Henry Booth, Sr., and Sarah Becton Booth. She was the third of ten children born of this union in Acre Station, NC. She was preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Kenneth David Minor, Sr., daughter, Cherri Lynn Minor, son, Kenneth David Minor, Jr., great-granddaughter, Journey Coleman, two brothers, Henry Booth, Jr., and Harry Booth, and sister, Annie Booth.

Her Service to Christ

At an early age, Rosa became a dedicated and devoted member of Mt. Calvary Disciple of Christ in Acre Station, NC. She served as a member of the decoration committee where she sold spices to earn money to beautify the church. She served faithfully under the leadership of Elder Otis Norman and later Elder Lynberg White.

Her Journey

Rosa attended Beaufort County schools. She furthered her education at North Carolina Central University in Durham, NC, where she earned a degree in Home Economics. Later, she attended Elizabeth City State University where she received her second bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. Rosa began her career as a schoolteacher at S.W. Snowden Elementary in Aurora, NC, as a home economics, math, and science teacher where she served and taught for 30 years. During Rosa's time as an educator, she was the Chairperson of the Science Fair and was a faithful member of the North Carolina Teachers Association and the National Education Association.

Rosa enjoyed sewing and collecting recipes. She was a great cook. She not only cooked for her family but would feed the children of the neighborhood. She was loved by all whom she encountered. We cannot forget her favorite station to watch on TV: QVC!

On Saturday, March 26, 2022, Rosa was called into a peaceful and eternal rest at Vidant Beaufort County. Forever cherishing her loving memory are: three daughters, Natalia Grayson of Chesapeake, VA, Uvonne Minor of Morrisville, NC, and Sharon Wilson of Kinston, NC; three sons, Walter Minor, Sr., (Susan) of Edward, NC; Terry Minor (Barbara) of Wake Forest, NC, and Bryan Minor, Sr., (Alethia) of Edward, NC; a devoted daughter-in-love, Debra Minor of Manson, NC; 17 grandchildren, four of whom she raised, Rod Moore (Tuyet), Tara Moore-Parker (Vaddrick), Dr. Shanean Anderson, and her near and dear to heart, Brianna Wilson; 33 great-grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren. She also leaves two brothers, Samuel Booth, of Plymouth, NC, and Charlie Booth (Francine) of Raleigh, NC; four sisters, Catherine Everette of Portsmouth, VA, Carrie Randolph of Acre Station, NC, Revonda Fields of Wilmington, NC, and Daisy Bailey of Washington, NC; two sisters-in-law, Lois Booth of Acre Station, NC, and Thelma Booth of Washington, NC; honorary relatives and cherished friendships, Dr. Daniel Williams (Karla) of Monroe, NC, Cynthia and Cornell Justice of Edward, NC, Christine Forbes and the late King Forbes of James City, NC, Roy and Peggy Simpson of Washington, NC, Ethel Guion, Shirley Tyre of Aurora, NC, Beatrice Minor and Patricia Minor of Edward, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other friends, and fellow teachers.

Precious Memories

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*
