

Ron was born on February 15, 1936, in Kewanee, IL, the son of Leroy and Agnes (Sauer) Clark. He served our country in the United States Air Force from 1957-1962. He served as a Military Policeman and trained one of the first Dog Guard Units. After the service, Ron was proud to have trained the first guard dog unit for the Delaware State Police. Ron was united in marriage to Shirlee Burch in 1957. She preceded him in death in 2007. He married Colleen Stevens on January 25, 2011, in Wilmington, DE. Ron worked for the Phillips 66 Corporation, managing several gas stations in the Wilmington, DE area for several years. He then began his career with Sears & Roebuck, Co. as a salesman. He worked for 30 years for them before he retired. He was a member of the Catholic faith and was a true outdoorsman. He loved fishing, hunting, birding, traveling, hiking, golf, Frisbee golf, raising his dogs, and listening to country music. Ron loved staying in touch with life-long friends and making people laugh. Most of all, he loved being with family. His infectious smile endeared him to everyone he met.

Survivors include his wife, Colleen; his son, Patrick (Carolyn Sweet) Clark, Keene, N.H.; brother, Richard (Bea) Clark, Kewanee; sister, Barbara Tinker, East Moline; numerous nieces and nephews; six step-children and spouses; and 16 step-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three infant children, brother, William "Joe" Clark, and sister, Betty Wisbaum.

When we are gone,
and people weep for us & grieve,
let it be because we touched their lives with Beauty & Simplicity.

Let it not be said
that life was good to us,
but, rather, we were good to life.
- Jacob P. Rudin
