Togetherness

Death is nothing at all
I have only slipped away
Into the next room.
Whatever we were to each other,
That we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the way
which you always used to.
Laugh as we always laughed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be the household word
That it always was.
Let it be spoken without effort.
Life means all that it ever was:
There is absolutely unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of your mind
because I am out of your sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval,
Somewhere very near
just around the corner.
All is well.
Nothing is past; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be
As it was before – only better,
Infinitely happier and forever
–We will all be one together
With Christ.
