

Don was born November 30, 1931, the son of Erlo and Bertha (Smith) Shaw, in Griffin, IL. He graduated from Geneseo Township High School in 1949. On March 23, 1951, he married Verna Jones. She preceded him in death in 2007. Don served in the United States Marine Corps from 1952 – 1954. He was employed by John Deere Harvester, retiring September 1, 1987, after 36 years of service. He worked in the parts layout and product engineering divisions. He enjoyed farming, fishing, bicycle riding, and especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Don liked woodworking and made items that will be forever cherished by his family. In his later years, he enjoyed dancing, music, and happy hour at Overlook Village – earning himself the nickname “Dancing Man” at Overlook. Don showed his true strength of character by beating cancer three times.

Those left to cherish his memory include his children, Joel (Carol) Shaw, Omaha, NE, Julie (Steve) Bosold, Osco, IL, Joni (Howard) Beck, Geneseo, IL, Judi (John) Heller, Orion, IL, and Jill (Marty) DePauw, Geneseo, IL; grandchildren, Meredith (Jared) Garwood, Jordan Shaw and Taylor (Steven) Eliason, Traci (Rick Rodarte) Bosold, Allison (Jake) Blade, and Tom Bosold, Corbyn Beck, Andrea Beck, Ryan (Cassidy Gransow) Heller, Robyn (Jordan) Schultz, and Devan (Abbey) DePauw and Shawn DePauw; eleven great-grandchildren; sisters, Lois Johnson, Longview, TX, and Mary (Bob) Hackl, Savoy, IL; brothers, Bill Shaw, Camp Point, IL, and John (Mary) Shaw, Davenport, IA; and special friend Clarice Massingill.

Remembering The Life Of Donald E. Shaw

November 30, 1931~ June 22, 2020

Don was born November 30, 1931, the son of Erlo and Bertha (Smith) Shaw, in Griffin, IL. He graduated from Geneseo Township High School in 1949. On March 23, 1951, he married Verna Jones. She preceded him in death in 2007. Don served in the United States Marine Corps from 1952 – 1954. He was employed by John Deere Harvester, retiring September 1, 1987, after 36 years of service. He worked in the parts layout and product engineering divisions. He enjoyed farming, fishing, bicycle riding, and especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Don liked woodworking and made items that will be forever cherished by his family. In his later years, he enjoyed dancing, music, and happy hour at Overlook Village – earning himself the nickname “Dancing Man” at Overlook. Don showed his true strength of character by beating cancer three times.

Those left to cherish his memory include his children, Joel (Carol) Shaw, Omaha, NE, Julie (Steve) Bosold, Osco, IL, Joni (Howard) Beck, Geneseo, IL, Judi (John) Heller, Orion, IL, and Jill (Marty) DePauw, Geneseo, IL; grandchildren, Meredith (Jared) Garwood, Jordan Shaw and Taylor (Steven) Eliason, Traci (Rick Rodarte) Bosold, Allison (Jake) Blade, and Tom Bosold, Corbyn Beck, Andrea Beck, Ryan (Cassidy Gransow) Heller, Robyn (Jordan) Schultz, and Devan (Abbey) DePauw and Shawn DePauw; eleven great-grandchildren; sisters, Lois Johnson, Longview, TX, and Mary (Bob) Hackl, Savoy, IL; brothers, Bill Shaw, Camp Point, IL, and John (Mary) Shaw, Davenport, IA; and special friend Clarice Massingill.

Remembering The Life Of Donald E. Shaw

November 30, 1931~ June 22, 2020

My farm and yard are lookin the best as I can get them. My pickup and tractors are clean, polished, serviced. My tools are sharp and put away where they belong. My hairline is receded to the middle of my head. I've got pancake mix in the cupboard, fishin poles in the garage.. I get this all from you... Thank you for all the birthdays, school events, sporting events, demolition derbies, holidays, and cookouts.

Give grandma a hug.
See y'all on the other side.

- Tom Bosold

Graveside Funeral Service To Celebrate His Life

Friday, June 26, 2020 10:00 a.m.

Oakwood Cemetery
Geneseo, IL

Military Honors Accorded By
The Geneseo VFW

Musical Selections
How Great Thou Art
Chris Rice

Somewhere Over The Rainbow
Judy Garland

Casket Bearers
All His Loving Grandchildren
and
Great-Grandchildren

In lieu of flowers and statuary memorials, the family would like to encourage everyone to consider the gift of life and register to become an organ donor. Memorials may also be made to the Colona Food Pantry.

My farm and yard are lookin the best as I can get them. My pickup and tractors are clean, polished, serviced. My tools are sharp and put away where they belong. My hairline is receded to the middle of my head. I've got pancake mix in the cupboard, fishin poles in the garage.. I get this all from you... Thank you for all the birthdays, school events, sporting events, demolition derbies, holidays, and cookouts.

Give grandma a hug.
See y'all on the other side.

- Tom Bosold

Graveside Funeral Service To Celebrate His Life

Friday, June 26, 2020 10:00 a.m.

Oakwood Cemetery
Geneseo, IL

Military Honors Accorded By
The Geneseo VFW

Musical Selections
How Great Thou Art
Chris Rice

Somewhere Over The Rainbow
Judy Garland

Casket Bearers
All His Loving Grandchildren
and
Great-Grandchildren

In lieu of flowers and statuary memorials, the family would like to encourage everyone to consider the gift of life and register to become an organ donor. Memorials may also be made to the Colona Food Pantry.