

Gary was born May 4, 1950, the son of Francis and Janice (Gochanour) Harlacher, in Streator, IL. He graduated from Streator High School and went on to attend Illinois State, then received his master's degree from Saint Xavier University, Chicago. Gary spent the majority of his professional career as a teacher and coach at Geneseo High School, while previously also spending time at Westmer High School, Rock Falls High School, TriValley High School, Rock Island High School and Riverdale High School. In 2013, Gary was inducted by his peers into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame. His passions included coaching, attending his grandchildren's events, traveling, golfing, horse racing, and the New York Yankees.

Those left to cherish his memory include his loving partner, Cheryl Luck, Ladd, IL; children, Devon (Dan) Schaaf, Geneseo, IL, and Ryan Harlacher, Los Angeles, CA; grandchildren, Hayden, Reese, and Connor Schaaf; siblings, Peggy (Don) Kleppin, Rutland, IL, Debbie Bateson, Clinton, IL, Marlene (Bob) Horton, Streator, IL, Cheryl (Greg) Drysdale, Streator, IL Brenda (Jim) Lewis, Streator, IL, and Terry Harlacher, Streator, IL; and cousin, Louis Burcar, Streator, IL.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Francis and Janice; sister, Kathy McAchran; and grandchildren, Drew and Owen Schaaf.

VANDEMORE
FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY
HONORING THE PAST • SERVING THE FUTURE

Remembering
THE LIFE OF
Gary L. Harlacher
May 4, 1950~ October 5, 2021

Gary was born May 4, 1950, the son of Francis and Janice (Gochanour) Harlacher, in Streator, IL. He graduated from Streator High School and went on to attend Illinois State, then received his master's degree from Saint Xavier University, Chicago. Gary spent the majority of his professional career as a teacher and coach at Geneseo High School, while previously also spending time at Westmer High School, Rock Falls High School, TriValley High School, Rock Island High School and Riverdale High School. In 2013, Gary was inducted by his peers into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame. His passions included coaching, attending his grandchildren's events, traveling, golfing, horse racing, and the New York Yankees.

Those left to cherish his memory include his loving partner, Cheryl Luck, Ladd, IL; children, Devon (Dan) Schaaf, Geneseo, IL, and Ryan Harlacher, Los Angeles, CA; grandchildren, Hayden, Reese, and Connor Schaaf; siblings, Peggy (Don) Kleppin, Rutland, IL, Debbie Bateson, Clinton, IL, Marlene (Bob) Horton, Streator, IL, Cheryl (Greg) Drysdale, Streator, IL Brenda (Jim) Lewis, Streator, IL, and Terry Harlacher, Streator, IL; and cousin, Louis Burcar, Streator, IL.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Francis and Janice; sister, Kathy McAchran; and grandchildren, Drew and Owen Schaaf.

VANDEMORE
FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY
HONORING THE PAST • SERVING THE FUTURE

Remembering
THE LIFE OF
Gary L. Harlacher
May 4, 1950~ October 5, 2021

MTXE

(Mental Toughness Extra Effort)

A Mass of Christian Burial
Monday, October 11, 2021 | 10:30 am
St. Malachy Catholic Church
Geneseo, IL

Officiant
Deacon Robert O'Rourke

Musical Selections By
Mary Frimml
St. Malachy Resurrection Choir

Eternal Resting Place
Oakwood Cemetery

Casket Bearers
Alan Holder, Dave Aper
Jessie Dobbles, Brad Storm
Rick Thomas, Jeff Verstraete

Honorary Casket Bearers
Roger Ray, Mike Kiss
Denny Diericx, Dan Rogers

MTXE

(Mental Toughness Extra Effort)

A Mass of Christian Burial
Monday, October 11, 2021 | 10:30 am
St. Malachy Catholic Church
Geneseo, IL

Officiant
Deacon Robert O'Rourke

Musical Selections By
Mary Frimml
St. Malachy Resurrection Choir

Eternal Resting Place
Oakwood Cemetery

Casket Bearers
Alan Holder, Dave Aper
Jessie Dobbles, Brad Storm
Rick Thomas, Jeff Verstraete

Honorary Casket Bearers
Roger Ray, Mike Kiss
Denny Diericx, Dan Rogers