

Barbara was born on November 22, 1935, the daughter of Francis and Edith (Jadwiga) Duplissis, in Northampton, MA. Barbara graduated from Wharton High School and married Victor H. Betcher on December 13, 1953, in Wharton, NJ.

Always involved and volunteering, Barb was a member of St. Malachy's Church where she sang in the choir, was a member of Circle, Bible study and volunteered many hours of service. After retiring from the Rock Island Arsenal, she donated her time to Hammond Henry Hospital, was a member of the boards of Country Estates and the Geneseo Senior Center. She delivered for Meals on Wheels, played in bridge club and loved going to quilting club.

Nothing made her happier than cooking and baking for family and friends. She was a wonderful cook, an avid reader and gardener who could grow the best tomatoes around. Everyone could count on her -- for support, advice, a kind word, a hand -- and she would shine, always a ray of hope, kindness and love. Barb was loved by her family and everyone who knew her.

Those left to cherish her memory include daughters, Constance (Jefferson) Melby, Cynthia (Jerry) Betcher Wright, and Katherine Betcher. Grandchildren, Molly Danay (Ryan White), Hilary (Evan) Nelson, Sarah (Chris) Jacobi, Charlie Caldwell and Sampson Sprague; seven great-grandchildren, sister Elizabeth Duplissis and brother (nephew) Francis Duplissis.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Victor, parents Edith and Francis, brothers Robert and Donald Duplissis, and sister Mary Duplissis.

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A season,
AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN:
A TIME TO BE BORN,
AND A TIME TO DIE;
A TIME TO PLANT,
AND A TIME TO PLUCK UP THAT WHICH IS PLANTED;
A TIME TO KILL,
AND A TIME TO HEAL; A TIME TO BREAK DOWN,
AND A TIME TO BUILD UP;
a time to Weep
AND A TIME TO LAUGH;
A TIME TO MOURN, AND A TIME TO DANCE;
A TIME TO CAST AWAY STONES,
AND A TIME TO GATHER STONES TOGETHER;
A TIME TO Embrace
AND A TIME TO REFRAIN FROM EMBRACING;
A TIME TO SEEK, AND A TIME TO LOSE;
A TIME TO KEEP, AND A TIME TO CAST AWAY;
A TIME TO REND, AND A TIME TO SEW;
A TIME TO KEEP SILENCE, AND A TIME TO SPEAK;
A TIME TO LOVE, AND A TIME TO HATE;
A TIME FOR WAR, AND A TIME FOR Peace
