

James was born on November 2, 1941, the son of Frederick "Fritz" and Ethel (Magnuson) Humbert, in Woodbury, NJ. He graduated from Kewanee Wetherfield High School and went on to attend the Military Academy in Alton, IL. James served as a Private E2 Army Engineer from 1960-1963. James loved antiques. He also loved to spend summers at the cabin in Lake Lauderdale in Wisconsin, boating and fishing. James was great at working on boats and he enjoyed racing them. He was an avid Fighting Illini fan, as his father, Fritz was 1st team All-Big Ten fullback at the University of Illinois.

Those left to cherish his memory include friends, Deb Demers and Tanya (Scott) Stephens of Geneseo, IL.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Fredrick and Ethel; daughter, Teresa Lommel; and sister, Patricia Ann

In the rising of the sun
and in its going down,
We Remember Him.

In the blowing of the wind
and in the chill of winter,
We Remember Him.

In the opening of buds
and in the warmth of summer,
We Remember Him.

In the rustling of leaves
and in the beauty of the autumn,
We Remember Him.

In the beginning of the year
and when it ends,
We Remember Him.
