~ The Journey ~

Mr. Henry James Broadnaxe was born October 21, 1946, in Eatonton, Georgia to the late Mrs. Annie Nora Thomas. He attended school and graduated from R. L. Cousins High School, class of 1965.

He enlisted in the United States Army in 1965 and served three years, serving in the Vietnam War. In Vietnam, he received the Bronze Star Service Medal as a Sharp Shooter. After returning from Vietnam and discharging from the Army, he was employed with Lithonia Lighting for thirty-one years until his retirement.

“Hen” as he preferred to be called was an avid gun collector as well as an outdoorsman, who enjoyed fishing and hunting. He was also a huge sports fan and could be seen watching a Western on any given day.

Hen was also a meticulous dresser. “I have never seen a man go to work at a factory with white or beige pants on and come back the same way he left” “Did he even sit down or work”?! “He didn’t have a spot or wrinkle”.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a loving daughter, Jennifer Jackson; son-in-law, Robert F. Jackson, Jr.; granddaughter, Kirsten Jackson and grandson, Robert F. Jackson III (Trey), as well as a host of faithful cousins and devoted friends.

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;
So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, “Come to me.”
With tearful eyes, we watched you
And we saw you pass away,
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest;
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the Best!
