~ The Obituary ~

On November 18, 1949, Johnny Clarence Terrell was born to the late Mr. & Mrs. Gabe (Ida) Terrell.

Johnny attended East Newton Elementary School and graduated from R.L. Cousins High School. After graduation he worked at the Old Cow Palace Restaurant on Highway 278 Covington, Georgia for several years.

He later moved to Atlanta, Georgia where he started his own cleaning business. Johnny loved playing the guitar, some of his favorite singers were, Sam Cook & Jimi Hendrix. He moved back to Covington years later, where he worked for Beaver Manufacturing, Mansfield, Georgia for a few years.

Johnny was placed in the Georgia War Veterans Home in Milledgeville, Georgia. After being struck by two cars in two separate years, he spent a few years in the home, then he returned to his Covington home where he finished out his years riding his bike all over the county.

He departed his earthly life on July 14, 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Gabe (Ida) Terrell; brothers, Mr. Grady Terrell, Mr. Willie Terrell, Mr. Robert Terrell and Mr. Charles Terrell.

He leaves to cherish his memories, one brother, Mr. Henry Terrell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
