GEORGIA

Georgia was so sweet and kind the song will always remind us of her. Georgia, Georgia the whole day through Just an old sweet song keeps Georgia on my mind Your arms reach out for me, your eyes smiles tenderly. Still in peaceful dreams I see, the road leads back to you. Georgia, Georgia now peace, yes! Peace you have found just an old sweet song keeps Georgia on my mind.

~ With Sincerest Appreciation ~ of the Late

Georgia Ann Woods Freeman

Georgia Ann Woods Freeman was born on June 5, 1938, in Covington, Georgia. She was the oldest of three children born to the late Louis and Mattie Lou (Marks) Woods.

Georgia joined Bethelbara Baptist Church at an early age. She later joined Gaither's Chapel U.M.C where she served faithfully in working and ushering until her health failed. Georgia got her formal education in Newton County Schools System where she graduated in the class of 1958. She went on to take some classes in nursing. She worked for many years at Newton County Hospital taking care of newborn babies. In her later years she worked as a caregiver.

She married the late Parker Freeman, Jr and to this union two children were born, Parker Alan and Warren Craig. They were the joy of her life along with her grandchildren and great grandson.

Georgia was a loving and giving person. Her grocery list would always consist of treats for her great grandson Cameron, her cousins, Pastor and the children at church. She also carried treats to her friends in the nursing home. She always had something to give, even if she offered you her Boost protein drink. You rarely left her presence without a treat.

On February 18, 2019, God called Georgia home. She is preceded in death by her parents; Mr. & Mrs. Louis (Mattie Lou) Woods; two brothers, Mr. Charlie Seal and Mr. Milton. Georgia also had a good friend and neighbor, who always looked out for her, Mrs. Annie Gaither, whom preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Mr. & Mrs. Alan (Gaynell) Freeman, Mr. & Mrs. Warren (TaKaKo) Freeman; two granddaughters, Ms. Tiffany Freeman and Mr. & Mrs. Johnathan (Ayana) Strutz; three grandsons, Mr. Christopher Freeman, Mr. Brandon Freeman and Mr. Isami Freeman; one great grandson, Cameron England; special cousins, Mrs. Ann Marks-Bargie and Mrs. Lucille Woods-McKay; special friends, Mrs. Shondra Lawrence-Saxton and Mr. Henry Terrell; along with many other loving cousins and friends.
