~ The Obituary ~

Shelvis Dwayne Hillman, a loving husband and kind hearted Father was born on September 10, 1978, in Covington, Georgia to Ms. Virginia Thomas and Mr. Stanley Hillman.

“Chevy”, his childhood name, loved to play recreational baseball and write his own music. He joined Bethel Bara Baptist Church at an early age and became the church drummer. As time passed, Chevy eventually became a member of a local rap group called GND. In his pursuit of music, Chevy made a name for himself becoming a DJ. He also became a successful entrepreneur and opened Small Changes Loan Company. Shelvis later in life married his childhood sweetheart, Patrice Jackson.

On Wednesday, April 3, 2019, Chevy our earth-bound guardian angel received his heavenly wings. He leaves to cherish his loving memories, his loving wife, Mrs. Patrice Hillman; four children, Mr. Devaris (Jasmine) Dyer, Mr. Khelvis Hillman, Ms. Alexis Dyers and Ms. Arkeria Dyer; his mother, Ms. Virginia Thomas; father Mr. Stanley Hillman; three grandchildren, Kaden Hollman, Amir Dyer and an expectant grandchild; one sister, Mrs. Shareka (Red) Durham; one brother, Mr. Stanley (PeeWee) Hillman, Jr. and a host of other relatives and friends.

My Path was chosen a way I could not for see I'm in Heaven now where God wanted me to be,
I leave you with memories of the love I have for you
God called me home to do what he had me to do
I love ya'll more than you could see
Just know God opened the doors for me
God's plan is not your plan
the pain will lessen with each day
Just remember the words I used to say
“Mic Check, Mic Check 1, 2 DJ
Heaviii Chevvy
