

With Sincere Appreciation

The family of the late Mrs. Willie Bell McGee wishes to extend their deepest thanks for all acts of kindness shown during their time of bereavement.

-The Family -

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm Free,
I am following the path God laid for me,
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all,
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play,
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I have found that peace at the close of the day.

~ Obituary ~

Mrs. Willie Bell McGee was born on October 1, 1929 to the late Mrs. & Mrs. Robert (Roberta) Williams. Later she married Mr. Roosevelt McGee.

Willie Bell was predeceased by her children, Genie McGee and Willie McGee; siblings, Paul Williams, Jessie Williams, Jerry Williams, Cora Bell Smith and Joe Williams.

Mrs. Willie Bell was a tiny frame woman that you thought was quiet as a mouse, but she had a way of saying things that were going to either make you laugh or cry. And, she could look at you like she could see right through you.

She loved to sing those Old Gospel Hymns. You could find her and the late Rufus McGee, the love of her life singing all the time, him on guitar and then singing. She loved her children and grandchildren with all her heart. She was a great cook. She was a family person and showed them much love.

She leaves to cherish her memories children, Mrs. Rosa Mae Wright, and Ms. Betty Turk; grandchildren, Mr. & Mrs. Michael (Flortacia) Banks, Ms. Shelah Turk, Mr. & Mrs. Robert (Carol) Hopson, Mr. & Mrs. Troy Wright; one sister, Mrs. Estella Shy; nine grandchildren, six great great grandchildren and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
