~ The Obituary ~

Carrie Ola Mae Manuel Price was born on December 30, 1935, to the parents of the late Cleo Manuel and Fannie Bell Goolsby-Campbell.

She received her education in the Newton County School System and Fort Valley State University. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Deacon Eddie B. Price for ten years. For over thirty years, Carrie worked as a nurse and enjoyed helping others.

After retiring, Carrie loved being in her home talking to her friends and family on the phone every day. She especially loved her stories, The Young and the Restless and The Bold and the Beautiful. She was affectionately known as “Granny” to her grandchildren.

Carrie departed this life on Sunday, August 2, 2020. She is preceded in death by her sister, Joyce Williams and brother, Ronald Campbell.

She leaves to mourn and continue her legacy; her dearest daughters, Kathy Edwards and Patsy Murphy; grandchildren, Rafael Price, Tanishia Price, Shamika Manuel, Charmine Price Mitchell, Andre Price, Kerry Edwards and Toni Edwards; great grandchildren, Ashondre Price, Imani Willingham, Emani Walker, Aubree Price, Eriel Walker, Iyana Willingham, Iesha Willingham and Josiah Edwards; sisters, Ethel Dean and Jackie (Robert) Lyles; special brother-in-law, U.C. (Alice) Price; special nephew, Dexter Dean; special cousin, Essie Perry and a host of other cousins and friends. Carrie will truly be missed by all her family and friends.

God Knew

God knew my body was tired, and it needed rest.
So, He did what He thought was best,
He sent down His angels,
To hold my hand, as they lead the way
Into the eternal land, this is not goodbye,
We'll meet again,
because, where there's life – there is an end no more.
