

God Gave Him Wings
God gave him wings, so that he could fly and soar among the clouds.
This loss leaves an emptiness, and our hearts cry out loud.
A soldier to our country, beloved to us all, God slowly took you,
With His gentle call. Our days will now be different,
Without you to grace, but our God knows best
And He took you to a better place.
Spread your wings through heaven,
For the battle you have won. Save a place for us...
Soon we will come along. Behold, dear one,
We love you and miss you, But most of all you will Always be with us.

~ Remembering ~

Derrick Lenard Hardin, Jr.

Derrick was born on November 4, 2003, in Atlanta, Georgia to Ms. Angela Howard and Mr. Derrick Lenard Hardin, Sr.

He attended Rockdale County High School and later transferred to Salem High School. He was the youngest and always made sure his family was good. His final career decision was to become a Police Officer like his older brother. Growing up, he attended the Newton County Schools System.

He transitioned from the earthly world to his heavenly home on August 31, 2020 at Grady Hospital. He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Jessie Mae Wise. Otis Smith, James and Patricia Hardin and Martha Howard.

He leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Ms. Angela Howard and his dad, Mr. Derrick Hardin, Sr.; one sister, Ms. Cierra Howard; seven brothers, Johnny Verdell, Deverick Hardin, De'Juandrick Hardin, Ja'Derrick Hardin, Demetrius Hardin, Delashajuan Hardin and Jarekis Hardin; grandparents, Mr. Otis Smith, Mr. & Mrs. James (Patricia) Hardin and Ms. Martha Howard; god sister, Jamya Brown; god brother, Jakayden Henry; four uncles, and four aunts and a host of other relatives and friends. Derrick will truly be missed, even though he is gone to heaven to unite with his grandmother; he will always be by our sides.
