

With Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friends could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

~ A Life Well Lived ~

Mrs. Gracie Williams Rogers was born on April 21, 1933, in Morgan County to the late L.Z. Williams, Sr. and Mrs. Annie Kate Williams.

Mrs. Gracie joined Pleasant Grove Baptist Church at an early age where she fellowshiped until her health declined. She was united in Holy Matrimony in 1951, to the late Mr. Oscar Henry Rogers, Sr., and they raised seven children.

Known across the community for her gardening skills, Mrs. Gracie grew some of the most beautiful flowers you have ever seen. Her flowers were admired by many passersby who would often stop by just to tell her how pretty her yard was. In addition to flowers, she was well-known for her vegetable gardens and she would not hesitate to share her produce with anyone who stopped by and asked for a mess of Collards, a bucket of beans or a couple of tomatoes-including strangers, because she never met a stranger. Mrs. Gracie was a “stay-at-home” mom up until the last of her children graduated from high school, then she worked in the school cafeteria until she retired.

She leaves to cherish her memories seven living children, Oscar H. Rogers Jr. (Ilene), Covington, GA, Lucille Rogers, Madison, GA, Annie K. Dear, McDonough, GA, William L. Rogers (Rose), Powder Springs, GA, Earnest Rogers (Marguerite) Madison, GA, Marian C. King, Suwanee, GA, and Cheryl D. Brown (Willie), Lithonia, GA; a sister, Rosa Mae Williams, Newborn, GA; a brother, Eugene Williams, Covington, GA, a sister-in-law, Helen Williams, Covington, GA; three grandchildren, Andri Rogers, William Rogers and Kamona Rogers; eleven great grandchildren; several great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Remember Me

*Remember me with smiles and laughter.
For that's how I'll remember you all.
If you can only remember me with tears,
then don't remember me at all.*
