

~ With Sincere Appreciation ~

Thanks to all my sisters for being such great caregivers but I want to give special thanks to Ossie and Sheila for each and everyday making sure he was well taking care of meeting all his doctor appointments and the daily help he needed day in and out. This was done for almost fifteen years. It was done out of nothing but Love we had for each other we give you your flowers and kind words of thanks while you can hear and smell them. Maintenance

“Let Not Your Heart be Troubled.”

John 14:1

Mr. Sammie Gene Cooper was born on August 7, 1953, in Jasper County. He was the third born of the late Mr. & Mrs. Landon Banks (Lucille) Cooper. He graduated from Newton County Comprehensive High School in 1976. Sammie had an intimate relationship with Christ and had accepted him as his Lord and Savior.

Sammie was preceded in death by his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Willie Boy (Tinnie) Smith; brother, Mr. Willie Banks Cooper; uncles, Mr. William Coy Smith, Mr. L.C. Smith and Mr. Linderbergh Smith. A very humble and loving individual, that held a variety of jobs and skills after graduating to help provide for his younger siblings and family until his health failed.

Sammie departed this earthly life and was granted his angel wings on February 4, 2021, at 10:22 P.M. Sammie's life may seem abbreviated to many, but to those who he touched, understand all the qualities of his life and it exceeds quantity of the time he loved. Sammie was a humble and wonderful person to all he met.

Sammie leaves to forever cherish his memories, sisters, Ms. Ossie Mae Cooper, Ms. Sheila Darlene Cooper, Mrs. Gloria Ann Terrell, Mrs. Maxine Standford White and Mrs. Sequetta Monique Weaver; loving and caring niece, Twyla Matesha Hart and nephew, Mr. Greg (Janitrea) Kelly; uncle and aunts, Mr. & Mrs. Orell (Shirley) Smith, Ms. Catherine Smith, Mrs. Beulah Hardeman, Mrs. Carrie Smith, all of Covington, GA and Mrs. Monie Clark, Providence, Rhode Island and a host of family and friends.

Brother

Today is full of memories of all brother Sammie Gene Cooper being laid to rest, and every single one of them is filled with happiness.
For you were someone very special, always such joy to know and love, but we know you are whole again and it was time for us to let go.
That's why this message is sent to heaven above, for all the angels waiting to greet you and will carry and take care of you, my brother you can walk, or run into their loving arms because you are whole again.
