Obituary

Stacie Wyvonne Blake-Graham was born on May 3, 1967, to the union of Edward and the late, Lillie Ruth Blake. She went home to be with the Lord, peacefully, on Sunday, June 27, 2021, with family and friends who, lovingly, witnessed her transition.

Stacie graduated from Newton County High School and attended Massey Business College. Later, she worked at Honey Creek Chiropractic as a massage therapist. She met her husband, Anthony while working at Conoco. She had faith in God. If she was asked how she was doing, she always said, "I'm doing wonderful!" She always saw the glass half full—always smiling—always loving. Stacie had a sense of humor like her dad. She had a special saying, "You gon get a whuppin!" She even told the nurse that at the hospital when she gave her a shot. She loved family—she loved peace—she loved life. Now, she has all that she loved with Christ.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Anthony; her sons Quendarius and Jerodus (Aveonna) Logan; her dad, Edward and stepmother, Maxine Blake; her brothers, Rodney, Lamar and Anthony (Dori) Blake; her stepsister, Latika (Myron) Billups; her aunts, Sara and Marie Finnie; her uncle, Larry Finnie; her cousin Gerald Finnie and sisters and brothers in-laws, nieces, nephews, and other cousins. She leaves, also, her besties, Cassandra "San" Pitts-Sanders, Sonya Parham and Gail Robinson and many others who love her...

See you later, Boot, Daddy...
