

His Journey's Just Begun

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...

For nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

~ A Blessed Life Lived ~

Darrell Carr was born in Cincinnati, OH on April 20th, 1956, but Social Circle, GA was his home where he lived much of his life on Hightower Trail. He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Elizabeth Hill and Albert Carr and one son, Walter Carr.

Darrell lived a full life and enjoyed music, fast cars, and motorcycles in his younger years. Darrell married young and from that union six sons were born. He was called home & gained his heavenly wings on November 11th, 2021. We will always remember his witty comments and fun spirit as we continue this journey with him in our hearts.

Darrell leaves to cherish his memories; five sons, Darrell Jr. & Felisa Carr, William & Temeka Carr, Romeo & Tamara Carr, Daniel Carr and Kevin Carr; three brothers, Bernal Carr, Shaun & Sheila Carr and Steven Carr; two sisters, Omar & Vincent Pitts and Kanita Carr-Riden; seventeen grandchildren, five great grandchildren and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

If I Should Go Tomorrow

*If I should go tomorrow, it would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you So don't you every cry.
The love that's deep within me, shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens, and it will heal the scars.*
