He Is Not Gone

*Ease your grief, he is not gone,
For it your heart he lingers on.*

*His smile, his laugh,
his special way,
Will comfort you from day to day.*

*You'll feel his presence
in the breeze,
That dances gently,
through the trees,
And it's his face that you will see,
When you're in need of company.*

*At any time, you can recall,
The love you shared,
you saved it all.
And in time, more than anything,
You'll find peace in* *“Together we shared our joys and sorrows,

I am forever grateful for the happiness
he has brought into my life”*

In Loving Memory of Terrance Michael Vincent Bighetty
August 15, 1991—March 25, 2023

Terrance ‘T’ ‘riff raff’ M. V. Bighetty passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, March 25, 2023, at the age of 31 years.

Those who knew Terrance knew of his vivacious personality. He was a man of many trades: a father first and foremost, carpenter, rapper at times, and always had a knack for making people smile. He had the utmost respect for family and was a friend you would never forget.

Terrance will always be remembered as a kind man to all he met and a brother to most.

Terrance grew up in The Pas and spent his summers in Jetaït with Art and Madeline. He always looked forward to his summers with our relatives. He had a close-knit relationship with Art and Madeline and regarded them as mom and dad.

Terrance Michael was a content, affectionate, funny and outgoing Partner, Father, Son, Brother and Friend. He was a man with many trades, he enjoyed being with his friends and family. Wherever he was needed, he made time, however, he never lost sight of home. He often liked to reflect on his long journeys, the ones during the summer with the portages and heavy boats. In the winter time, it was the long and cold skidoo rides just to make it to Shutter Island, Leaf Rapids, then back home. Just hearing Terrance speak about it, I knew he enjoyed every moment he made with his brothers and family members.

Terr was a very loving father, he cherished his children from oldest to youngest. He provided to the best of his ability. T showed exhilaration in giving and being the provider for his children. He often focused on getting and going to wherever they went and were; at the time no matter any situation. I remember during evacuation time, we had taken the kids to the zoo and we seen this black lama, he looked over at me with a smirk on his face and said, “Do we look the same?” That made me laugh, always joking around.

He liked keeping busy using his carpentry skills. When he wasn’t home, he would be singing in someone’s video. He loved to rap for his friends, his entertainment for everyone to see. He always made the best of his days. Terrance is leaving us with his memories to have and hold and it is now up to us to keep his memories going for the children, We are all going to miss his warm hugs and his soft whispers.

Terrance is survived by his loving spouse Nichole; his children Shalaya, Arthur, Aaron, Jayden, Terri, Anthony and Noah; his mother Angelique, Madeline; his father Calvin; his siblings Melody and Tyler.

Terrance was predeceased by his grandparents; Sara and Johnny Bighetty, Beatrice and James Hall; sister Cassandra; aunts and uncles: Vivian Van Nieuwenhuizen, Lucille Bighetty, Arthur Bighetty, Ervin Bighetty, Harry Bighetty; Lorraine (Hall) Brightnose, Jill (Hall) Sinclair, Frankie Hall, Cyril Hall and numerous relatives and friends.
