June 7, 2020

It is with broken hearts to announce the sudden passing of our dear little precious angel Juliet Alice Charmaine Dussion.

Juliet Alice Charmaine passed away suddenly on Sunday, June 7, 2020 with mom, dad, sister and brother by her side.

Juliet Alice Charmaine was born on Saturday, February 8, 2020 to proud parents of Alicia and Jeff. She was six pounds and her eyes changed colours to grey and at times to greenish grey. She had a cute little button nose and her beautiful big smile that lit up the room.

Juliet Alice Charmaine brought smiles to everyone she met. The little things she did, the noises she made instantly put a smile on everyone's face. Juliet's laugh was just like her sister Jenna's.

Juliet Alice Charmaine got her names from Jeff liking the name Juliet. Her second name Alice came from great grandmother and her third name came from her mom's Godmother Charmaine and Kokom. This is how her name came to be Juliet Alice Charmaine.

Juliet Alice Charmaine leaves to mourn her passing, her mom Alicia; dad Jeff; brothers Johnson and Silver; sister Jenna; grandparents John and Miranda Mercredi, Nadia and Fergus Campbell; aunties and uncles; chapan Gilbert Campbell Sr., Myrtle and Steve Campbell Sr., Marilyn Mercredi and Rose Buck from Cumberland House, Saskatchewan.

Our family would like to acknowledge and give our appreciation and heartfelt thank you to all who were there for us, especially to the EMT Response team, St. Anthony's Hospital Staff; auntie Judy and uncle Simon Lathlin, Chief Jim Tobacco, Women's Group of MCN, Vincent Bercier and Vinetta Umpherville. If anyone was forgotten it wasn't intentional.
