Angel was humble, kind, loving and caring person. She would always help in any way she could. She loved spending time with her children and family. Angel enjoyed family gatherings and she would go visit around in Traders Lake. She and Brian would visit and spend some time at Brian’s grandpa’s house.

In the summer time, she would go camping at the North Arm with Brian and his family. Angel enjoyed cooking and baking, watching TV, listening to music and playing card games.
