In Loving Memory Of Alfred Nabess

August 13, 1941

August 5, 2020

✠

Alfred Nabess Sr. passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 5th, 2020 at his home with his family by his side. Fred was born in Cormorant, Manitoba, on Wednesday, August 13, 1941 to Patrice and Maria (Parenteau) Nabess. Freddy lived his entire life in the communities of Thicket Portage, Cormorant, and The Pas.

Uncle was a very talented musician who had a love for music. He would pick up the guitar and entertain family and friends for hours at a time. He could sing for hours without singing the same song twice. He loved and sang all country music pre-1970.

Next to his love for music was his love for hunting. For 47 years, Uncle would set up fall moose camp with his sister Gladys. His hunting companions knew Uncle as an expert moose caller. His mastery of this skill landed him many moose over the years. He also enjoyed hunting ducks in the fall and participated with the family annual duck hunt.

Fishing with the rod and reel and net was something he enjoyed. Uncle would surprise his friends and family with his appetite for jackfish.

Uncle had a unique personality. He had a talent for making people laugh without even trying. You could always anticipate that he would put a smile on your face when you least expected it.

During the winter months, Uncle Fred enjoyed watching all sports. Along with his life partner Elsie, they would set their alarm to wake up all hours of the night to watch curling live. In addition to this, watching hockey and the Blue Jays were a passion. You could feel the tension if one of his teams lost.

Fred leaves to mourn his life partner Elsie Nabess; sons Mark Nabess (Petra), Leslie Baker (Chrisie) and Richard Linklater; daughters Arlene Moore (Rick), Wanda Stewart (Kurt) and Selena Nabess (George); 15 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren and many family members to numerous to mention.

Fred is predeceased by his parents Patrice and Maria (Parenteau) Nabess; children Alfred (Bigman) Nabess Jr. and a daughter who was born sleeping; brothers Louie, Rupert, Charles, Robert, Donald and infant brother Arthur; sisters Irene Nabess, Gladys Mercredi, Lillian Ducharme, Violet Jacobson, and infant sisters Madelaine and Eleanor Nabess; and many family members too numerous to name.
