IN LOVING MEMORY OF
FLOYD STEVE CASTEL
JANUARY 21, 1963—APRIL 9, 2021

Floyd Steve Castel was born Monday, January 21, 1963, in The Pas, Manitoba, to Domithilda and Adam Castel.

Steve was happy, care free person who loved the outdoors, going hunting, fishing, trapping and camping with his family.

Steve worked at the Department of natural Resources as a Fire Tac Crew Boss, Skastew School, under Land Base with elders Theresa Bighetty and Victoria Bear and others working with the students teaching them life skills of wilderness safety and survival skills, Housing Department as a Technician in repairing appliances and also teaching his helpers how to fix and repair salvaged appliances.

Steve was a person of all trades. His hobby was to teach the young people to learn his talents. Steve was compassionate caring person who loved everyone's company.

Steve and his wife moved to Flin Flon when he got sick to have his dialysis treatments. Thank you to all the hospital staff who looked after him.

Steve passed away peacefully Friday, April 9, 2021, at the Health Sciences Centre, Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the age of 58 years.

Steve will be dearly missed by his wife of 27 years, Agnes Castel; children Stuart Castel (Dianne) and family, Steven Castel and family, Simon Castel, Cheryl Castel (J.C.
