For all the times

You gently picked me up,
When I fell down,
For all the times you Tied my shoes and tucked me into bed,
Or needed something but put me first instead.

From everything we shared, the dreams,
The laughter, and the tears,
I love you with a special love
That deepens every moment, Thank you Grandma for being the best you could be
To me and my kids.
~ Love always, Your Big Baby "O"

Jesus' New House

The length of life is but a day
Then night comes, and we're taken away
To a place of eternal rest
A home prepared for special guests
By a Savior who left earth so long ago In going, told His disciples so men might know That He came to save, and left to prepare A building that's permanent, to show His care
He knew our tents though finely built Were only temporary And made provision for the dissolution of it you see.

A Tribute to my Great Aunt

Aunt Katie had ears that really listen. Arms that always hug and hold. Love that's never ending and a heart that's made of gold. The many things you've done. All the times that you were there. Helping me recite poems, watching me being baptized, there when I received my HS diploma. The tough love that was giving along with a good old fashion "butt whooping" (Lol). Watching me grow into a woman and mother, instilling in me to be a God-fearing woman. Being blessed to be able to see my son get baptized and honor to be able to celebrate your 93rd birthday, to hear your voice that last time. Saying I love you before you took your heavenly ride.

A job well done.
